1. Why Choose Unique Japan Tours?

1. FULLY BONDED – FINANCIAL PROTECTION

Unique Japan Tours is a member of Total Payment Protection who fully guarantee and protect financial transactions between you and Unique Japan Tours. Your tour is fully protected no matter what country you are paying from. Full details of this will be clearly explained in our terms and conditions.

2. Small Groups with NO MINIMUM NUMBER POLICY

Our groups have always been intimate in size. We prefer quality over quantity. For that reason, our average group size averages at 8-12 people (maximum 16 guaranteed). Since our tours started in 2007, and unlike many other operators out there, we have never cancelled a tour because of insufficient numbers. If we get less than the minimum number to run a tour (currently set at 6 people), don't worry. We have years of experience designing a semi-escorted version of the same tour. The only difference to you will be instead of having a full-time tour leader throughout, you will be met on arrival at each destination by local guides and assistants - almost like your own private tour!! [See Inclusions on Page 14]

3. Local Team with 24/7 Emergency Helpline

Our local company UJT Services G.K. [also owned by Unique Japan Tours], will oversee all operations of your trip from start to finish. Our team in Tokyo are busy working behind the scenes ensuring each tour runs smoothly, in real time! So, rest assured, no matter what your problem may be, we will be with you all the way. While on our small group tours, your tour leader &/or local guides will be your key contacts for any emergencies.

4. 22 Years Experience in Japan

4. Destination Highlights

Tokyo

One quarter of all Japanese live in Tokyo or the near vicinity and with a population of over 14 million inhabitants, Tokyo is one of the largest cities in the world. With its huge skyscrapers, underpasses, overpasses and crowds of pedestrians, Tokyo may not seem the most attractive city on the surface, but the city has a vibrant charm all of its own. The street level detail is what makes Tokyo such an incredibly interesting place to explore and at every turn you will be met with an array of sights, sounds and smells to enliven the senses. The city has many major sights to visit such as Senso-ji Temple in the old downtown area of Asakusa or the fashion hub of Shibuya from where all new trends are said to emanate. All in all a stay in Tokyo is to experience one of the world's most vibrant and interesting cities; a capital hurtling headlong into the future whilst maintaining its links with the traditions of ancient Japan.

Gardens & Galleries

Kamakura

Kamakura is located one hour from Tokyo Station on the JR Yokosuka Line. This charming coastal town was capital of Japan between 1185 and 1333, a turbulent and bloody time in Japan's history. Today Kamakura is a haven of tranquillity and is home to many secluded temples and shrines which once you leave the main tourist trail you will often have to yourself. Engakuji is one of the leading Zen temples in Japan and the second most important of Kamakura's five great Zen temples. Built into the slopes of Kita-Kamakura's forested hills and surrounded by maple trees, Engakuji is set in stunning surrounds. There is a lovely walk through the hills from North Kamakura to the famous Big Buddha at Kotokuin Temple. Along the way you can visit the money washing shrine, Zeniarai-benten, where money washed in the sacred waters is said to double its value! You will also visit Hasedera Temple home to an 11-headed wooden statue of Kannon, hand-carved by the monks of the temple. Enjoy stunning views out over Kamakura Bay and be sure to explore the amazing underground cave-temple. In the evening will return to Tokyo and enjoy some free time in the capital.

Kanazawa

Kanazawa is a lovely small city close to the Sea of Japan coast. Until the turn of the century it was the 4th biggest city in Japan. However, its wealth was built on rice production and traditional crafts such as weaving and gold leaf and with the full scale industrialisation of the country Kanazawa was somewhat left behind. Today the city is flourishing again and still maintains a lot of its old charms. There are several small geisha districts and one where you can go inside an old tea house and see where the clients were entertained and even take tea yourself (sadly no longer served by geisha!). There are also samurai houses, a ninja temple and the city's most famous sight, the beautiful Kenrokuen garden rated as one of the three best promenade gardens in the whole of Japan.

Gardens & Galleries

Kenrokuen Garden

Kanazawa's Kenrokuen is one of the Three Great Gardens of Japan. The name Kenroku-en means "garden combining six characteristics" and is rooted in the idea that it serves the six aspects considered most important in creating the ideal garden. These aspects are: spaciousness, serenity, venerability, scenic views, subtle design and coolness. Kenrokuen is designed as a walking garden which should be enjoyed by strolling through its grounds. Different sections of the garden use gardening techniques from different periods and incorporate various features to create a unique "flow" throughout the garden. These features (ponds, hills, streams) have special symbolic resonance based cultural aesthetics derived from classical literature and art. The Kotoji-toro stone lantern is one such example, designed to resemble the bridge on a koto, a stringed musical instrument that is the national instrument of Japan. With roughly 8,750 trees, and 183 species of plants in total, Kenrokuen is every garden enthusiast's dream.

Kyoto

Oozing with tradition, Kyoto is the ultimate destination for anybody who wants to soak up time-honoured Japanese culture. Home to 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites, over 1,600 Buddhist temples and 400 Shinto shrines, this ancient city showcases the heart and soul of traditional Japan. Kyoto boasts an array of world-class gardens, majestic festivals and delicate cuisine, all of which make much of the rhythms of nature and the changing of the seasons. On first glance however, visitors will see that like any large Japanese city, grid-like Kyoto has its fair share of neon and concrete. But the discerning eye will soon pick out Kyoto's treasures: sacred shrines tucked in among shopping arcades, time-honoured teahouses nestling among modern businesses and mysterious geisha scuttling down backstreets among the tourists and souvenirs. Kyoto's charm lies in these details and whether you're here for three days or three years, the closer you look, the more you'll discover. Your tour leader will guide through your introduction to Kyoto which includes: Saihouji Temple & Moss Garden (subject to availability), Arashiyama scenic sightseeing, Torokko Train Ride, and Nanzenji Evening Light-Up.

Saihouji Temple & Moss Garden

Saihō-ji is a Zen Buddhist temple famed for its moss garden. Indeed Saiho-ji is acclaimed by many as Kyoto's most beautiful garden and is a registered UNESCO World Heritage Site as part of the "Historic Monuments of Ancient Kyoto". The moss garden takes the form of a circular promenade based around a central pond. The pond is shaped like the Chinese character for 'heart' and contains three small islands. Over 100 varieties of moss cover the area surrounding the pond. The gardens of Saihō-ji are collectively considered to be both a historical landmark and a "special place of scenic beauty" in Japan. Our Japanese Garden Expert will take you through Saiho-ji explaining the significance of the garden's features and how it exemplifies the zen-style of Japanese garden.

Nara

Nara lies just 40 minutes by local train from Kyoto and is renowned for the wealth of its Buddhist and Shinto heritage. Nara was formerly the end of the Silk Road and was for this reason the area which first saw Buddhist teaching making the transition across the ocean from China. The daibutsu or big Buddha is hugely impressive as is the huge wooden structure which houses it, to this day the world's largest wooden building despite the current structure being a third smaller than the original. The myriad of shrines and temples are all set against the backdrop of the low lying mountains and in the midst of Nara Park, which is famously home to a vast population of pesky deer. Given half a chance they'll happily munch on your guide books, umbrellas, scarves, and about anything else they can get their noses into! You can also buy official deer cookies to feed them with but do so at your own peril.

Gardens & Galleries

Arashiyama & Nanzenji Light-up

To the west, Arashiyama is famous for its mountain views especially with autumn leaves and is a fantastic opportunity to see this foliage in a natural landscape. These landscapes heavily influence the design of Japanese gardens and visiting Arashiyama and riding the Torokko Sightseeing Train through such beautiful natural scenery can only help deepen your appreciation of the gardens that we visit. In the evening you have the option of visiting Nanzenji Temple which holds spectacular evening light-up events for a limited time in autumn to allow visitors view the stunningly illuminated autumn foliage.

Hiroshima & Miyajima Island

(Optional – visited on free day in Kyoto)

Hiroshima is a city that needs little introduction. It is of course infamous for being the site of one of two atomic bombs dropped on Japan at the end of the Second World War. Despite it's tragic past, Hiroshima is now a bustling and vibrant city which has risen phoenix-like from the ashes. The Peace Park and Museum are a poignant reminder of the reason for Hiroshima's fame and everyone should spend an afternoon in this part of town. Other attractions in Hiroshima include Hiroshima Castle and the baseball stadium. The Shukkei-en garden is well worth an afternoon stroll with a number of tea houses dotted about the grounds. The Hiroshima Prefectural Museum of Art contains some wonderful paintings by both Japanese and Western artists. There is also the Hiroshima City Museum of Contemporary Art which has many pieces inspired by the 1945 bombing. There are also some great views of the city from here. The local food is okonomiyaki, a kind of Japanese savoury pancake. You choose the ingredients and then cook the pancake yourself at your table.

Gardens & Galleries

Miyajima Island, located just off the coast of Hiroshima, is one of Japan's most loved places with a charming rural atmosphere to match the beautiful surroundings. The island is perhaps best known for the red torii gate of Itsukushima Shrine which appears to be floating in the sea. In the evening this gate and the shrine behind it (as well as other traditional buildings in the area) are floodlit and the atmosphere is magical. A cable car takes you to fantastic views across the Inland Sea from Mount Misen, the highest point of the island. There are many pleasant walks on Miyajima among the temples and along the bustling shopping street in the island's small village. You may also see some of the island's native fauna; the sacred deer are easy to spot as they roam freely, but you'll have to work a little harder to spot any of the resident monkey population; keep your eyes peeled! Miyajima is a wonderful place to slow down, unwind and relax, so take your time and let the magic of this island enchant you!

Matsue

Matsue, located in rural Shimane, is Japan's best kept secret. Such a well-kept secret that the popular cartoon character Yoshida-kun frequently quips that no one in Japan can find Shimane on a map even though the area is known as the birthplace of Japan and the home of the gods. The Horikawa Sightseeing Boat offers visitors a fascinating and unique perspective of Matsue Castle and the old-town area as they explore its moat and canal network. You can get a real sense of the atmosphere of this old castle town by walking along Shiomi Nawate Street which runs parallel to the moat and be sure to visit the finely preserved buke yashiki or samurai residence. Gardens & Galleries tour will stay two nights in Matsue in a luxurious traditional ryokan, including delicious traditional kaiseki dinner and relaxing onsen baths.

Yuushien Garden

East of Matsue, on Daikonshima Island, is the beautiful Yuushien garden. Yuushien is a traditional walk-through garden with carp-filled ponds, streams, and waterfalls and is most famous for its 250 types of peony flower. In spring, early-flowering peonies are painstakingly transplanted by hand into the large central pond transforming the heart of the garden into one gigantic garland of cascading colours. In autumn, Yuushien holds magical evening illuminations that turn the streams and ponds into reflecting pools that capture and magnify the vibrant colours of Japan's spectacular autumn foliage. On this evening you will be one of the lucky few who visit these amazing illuminations.

Gardens & Galleries

Adachi Museum of Art & Japanese Gardens

The Adachi Museum of Art's Japanese Garden has been ranked as the number one garden in Japan for years by the Journal for Japanese Gardening. The museum and its garden are located in the small town of Yasugi in beautiful rural Shimane. Adachi is actually host to six different types of Japanese garden which surround the Museum building. The six gardens comprise of a Dry Landscape Garden, Moss Garden, Tea House, White Gravel & Pine Garden, Pond Garden, and Kikaku Waterfall Garden. One of the keys to the beauty of these gardens is how well they sit within and compliment the stunning natural scenery that surrounds them. The museum exhibits are also of exceptional quality lending to the sense of the Adachi Art Museum & Garden as an aesthetic paradise.

Gardens & Galleries

Izumo Taisha Grand Shrine

Japan's oldest shrine is located outside the picturesque village of Taisha-machi. Pass under the massive torii gate that marks the entrance to the grounds of the shrine and follow on either side of the central pathway lined with pine trees until you reach the Main Hall, the tallest shrine building in Japan. Continue on to the Worship Hall where you will be greeted by the sight of Japan's largest shimenawa – a huge sacred straw rope 13.5 meters in length and weighing over 5 tons – that hangs under the front ceiling of the Worship Hall.
